

FAKE NEWS

False and often sensational information disseminated under the guise of news reporting

Key Features:

- Contains false information
- Deliberately created to trick the reader
- Motivated by economic gains or political influence
- Hide behind the mask of a trusted news source

Your voice matters!

Help us understand the effectiveness of Cyber Wellness newsletters.

Click or scan the QR code to fill up a short survey.

How may fake news affect your child or others?

- Cause unnecessary fear
- Damage the reputation of innocent people
- Create tension between racial and religious groups

How to help your child to identify fake news?

Talk to them

engage your child in conversations about issues around us

Check

share ways to check reliability of information (SURE method)

How to search for more credible information?

- Use search engine more effectively by specifying the topic
- Use reliable websites or government sites (ending with .gov.sg)

Search

NLB 'SURE' Programmes

Scan the QR Code to find out more!

