

Visiting Choa Chu Kang Columbarium and Choa Chu Kang Cemetery between 16 Mar 2024 and 14 Apr 2024

From Sat 16 Mar 2024 to Sun 14 Apr 2024, Choa Chu Kang Cemetery and Columbarium will be opened 24 hours daily.

Choa Chu Kang Columbarium (CCKC)

We wish to share that there are ongoing essential works at the columbarium. Members of the public can continue to access all occupied niches in the columbarium. Visitors are reminded to exercise care and caution especially if you are planning to visit at night, and keep away from hoarded areas. You may refer to the layout plan on the location of the hoarded areas (yellow shaded areas) during the Qing Ming visitation period. Safety at our facilities is of utmost importance to NEA. We apologise for any inconvenience caused and thank you for your kind understanding.

Third-party Grave Maintenance Services

- NEA provides regular grass-cutting maintenance for common areas of Choa Chu Kang Cemetery without additional charge. However, this service is not provided at individual graves and their monuments.
- Visitors may be approached by individuals at Choa Chu Kang Cemetery for payment of grave maintenance service fees. These services are not regulated or endorsed by NEA. If you did not make prior private arrangements for such services, please do not pay anyone who claims to have maintained the graves of your loved ones.
- NEA has reminded third-party grave maintenance service providers not to engage in any illegal activities, such as touting, extortion, harassment, and cheating. You may lodge a police report or contact us at 6225 5632 should you encounter any such incident.

Exercising Care around the Cemetery

- Visitors are reminded to exercise care and caution, by donning protective footwear and watching out for potholes, cracks, uneven or rough surfaces on pathways or terrain, when navigating or walking within the Choa Chu Kang Cemetery compound.
- Visitors are advised to check the weather forecast before visiting. In the event of thunderstorms with potential lightning risk during your visit, please seek shelter at the nearby pavilions or amenity blocks immediately.
