FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What is a Supporting Affidavit?

The applicant is required to file a Supporting Affidavit to confirm that the contents of the Statement and the exhibits he has submitted are true. The Supporting Affidavit is to be sworn or affirmed after the Statement has been accepted by the court.

2. When must it be filed?

The Supporting Affidavit must be filed within 14 days after the filing of the Originating Summons. If you are unable to file the Supporting Affidavit on time, you should file a letter requesting for an extension of time with an explanation for the delay when you file the Supporting Affidavit.

3. Where may I obtain the Statement for the Exhibit marked "A"?

The Statement which has been accepted by the court will be printed for you by the Service Bureau.

4. What are the documents to be exhibited under "C"?

The documents to be exhibited depend on the nature of your application. Examples are:

- Certified True Copy ("CTC") of Death Certificate of Deceased
- CTC Death Certificate of Executors/Beneficiaries (if any)
- CTC Will of Deceased (for Probate only)
- CTC Inheritance Certificate (for Muslim estates)

Court forms are not required to be exhibited.
